3 PURPOSE OF THE MEETING

The Matters to be discussed as requested by electors are:

- Hear the concerns of the Kalgoorlie-Boulder community in respect to the detrimental economic, business, Occupational safety & health, public liability and lifestyle impacts of the vaccination mandates specifically on members of the Kalgoorlie-Boulder community.
- Provide assurance to the community that the City of Kalgoorlie-Boulder accepts the financial and public liability risks of adopting the vaccination mandates imposed by the WA State Government on Kalgoorlie-Boulder residents, rate payers and business owners.
- Vote to oppose vaccination mandates and support Pro Choice for the Kalgoorlie-Boulder community, and that this vote be taken at a Special Meeting of Electors.

- Advise the Premier of Western Australia and State Parliament about the concerns of the Kalgoorlie-Boulder community and request them from imposing any further mandates and to revoke any mandates in place now.
